Marsha Kemple
Lead Lay Chaplain, Our Lady of Lourdes MAT

Marsha is the lead lay chaplain of a large MAT of 21 schools, both primary and secondary. She has led the Faith in Action award for several years and delivered training for the last few years.

This event is for any member of staff, teaching or non-teaching, in a Primary or Secondary school who takes a lead on/assists in running the Faith in Action Award.

Course Description

This morning training event is designed to support any member of staff working in a school who has a role in running the Faith in Action Award. The facilitator will give you practical tips of how to set up your school to support students in completing the Award.

Outline of the Programme

The session will cover the following:

- Reflection Point activities and resources
- Guidance on the various levels of the Award
- Information on the Final Piece and Journals

Note: participants will be required to buy the Faith in Action Leader's Guide and bring it with them to the training. This can be obtained from St Paul's online store
(It is not necessary to buy the Participant's Journal)
